Dear Colleagues,

Dear friends,

It is a great honor for us to invite you to attend the the Xth Balkan Congress of Radiology, to be held in in Interhotel Sandanski in the city of Sandanski, Bulgaria from 1st till 3rd of November 2012 .

We encourage the participants to exchange medical knowledge and innovative research, as the congresses will feature not only plenary sessions, but also lectures, workshops and poster presentations. The official language is English, and in this way experts from all Balkan countries will be able to share their experience and expertise, radiological culture and professional results.

The city of Sandanski is famous spa-city in the slopes of Pirin mountain, in the center of the Balkans in between 3 important airports –Sofia, Thessalonici and Skopje

We will send You more information via e-mail in the First announcement
